

2005 Comments & Lists: Artists' Best of 2005

by Various Artists

GUEST LISTS

- / POP/R&B
- / ELECTRONIC
- / RAP
- / ROCK
- / EXPERIMENTAL
- / FOLK/COUNTRY

4. OOIOO: Gold and Green: Incredible music, beautiful booklet. (Thrill Jockey)
5. Konono No. 1: Lubuaku: Got to play with them in Brasil this year, this is a great live record.(Terp Records)

Jason Forrest

1. Nathan Michel: The Beast (Sonig)
2. The Books: Lost and Safe (Tomlab)
3. Drumcorps: Rmx or Die (Kriss)
4. Jamie Lidell: Multiply (Warp)
5. Food For Animals: Scavengers (Muckamuck Produce)
6. Electric Kettle: Drunk & Disorderly (Combine)
7. Spunk: En Aldeles Forferdelig Skydom (Rune Grammofon)
8. Warst: King Of the Street Maddest Chick (Ndom Records: www.hardcoreosaka.com)
9. Panicstepper: Ambush
10. She's a Shranzy: DJ Killed the Video Star
11. 1-Speed Bike: Klootzak Keizer (Brooklyn Beats)
12. End: The Sick Generation (Mirex)

Pusha T, Clipse

1. Clipse: We Got It 4 Cheap Vol. 2

Of course I'm gonna go with We Got It 4 Cheap Vol. 2! With Vol. 1 we were trying to establish our ground, which was East Coast and lyrical-- period. We picked the Vol. 1 beats to try to spark that nostalgia of old East Coast shit, but with Vol. 2, we're ready to compete. Just telling everyone else: We're gonna take all your beats and burn over them.

A lot of rappers today forget the true essence of a mixtape, when you could pick them shits up and hear Jay-Z or Nas rhyming over the fly beat that was