Aaron Spectre «Lost Tracks» (Ad Noiseam, 2007)

Submitted by: Quarck | 19.04.2008no comment | 198 views

Aaron Spectre , also known for the project Drumcorps , reveals before us completely new side of his work. In protovoves frenzy break-grindcore Specter produces a chic downtempo, idm album. Lost Tracks - the result of six years of work, but despite this, the rumor is very fresh and original. The sound is minimalistic without excesses, but at the same time the melodies are very beautiful, the bit powerful and clear, pronounced. Just want to highlight the composition of Break Ya Neck (Remix) , a bit mystical and mysterious, a feeling, like wandering somewhere in the dusk. There was a place and a vocal, in a track Degrees the gentle voice Kazumi (Pink Lilies) sounds. As a result, Lost Tracks can be safely put on a par with the works of such mastadonts as Lusine, Murcof, Hecq.
